We want the children to learn about themselves by:

- I display manners and courtesy
- I have hope and ambition for my future.

Understanding my world

- I respect that I live in a democracy and that others have made sacrifices for the freedom that I enjoy.
- I respect the rule of law.
- I do what I can to look after the planet and live sustainably.

Understanding others

- I respect and serve the community where I live
- I understand my role as a global citizen
- I respect the diversity and equality of those who are different to me (disability, sexuality, race, religion).
